DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Sometimes when you fight too hard against the hands of time, you wind up getting slapped!

Tate, Amy and Christine's friendship has weathered plenty of storms, but they just didn't realize how weathered they had literally become. As they band together to fight the good fight against grey hairs, creased faces and ageist situations, the results don't always go their way.

Thankfully there is friendship and wine to wash away the taste of the laser treatment wand that was in your mouth and also happens to tighten vaginas. Um yeah, that totally happens...

MEETS

TATE O'CONNOR

MAIN CHARACTER

Tate has always been an old soul whose main worry now is that her outside has finally caught up to her inside. Newly engaged and planning her wedding in a world that caters to 20-something brides, Tate has to find a way to look as fresh faced in those wedding photos as her younger counterparts.

As an archetypal marketing executive, Tate has always been satisfied that she is ahead of the curve but is slowly discovering she might not be as plugged in as she thought.

As the clock starts ticking and Tate finds herself wondering if she should freeze her eggs in case she wants to have a baby at 50 (Janet Jackson did it, didn't she?), suddenly she feels so behind. But what does that mean when you don't even know where you want to go? Thank god she has Amy and Christine to talk her off the ledge!

AMY LOVEJOY

MAIN CHARACTER

Amy's life was picture perfect - a husband, two boys and a large house. But when her husband leaves her for a dental hygienist, she finds out how it feels to be bit on the ass by life. Add in a few rounds of online dating and she feels it even more...literally.

Amy is thrown back into the real world head first. A new job after 18 years at home, two kids who are adults now (but still live above the garage) and the chance to find true love all over again.

It's just that this isn't the world that she remembers and she faces a huge struggle to figure it out all over again. Thank god for two best friends who see her at her best and are ready to pull her out of the doldrums and into a brand new life. Cheers to that ladies!

CHRISTINE FORDHAM

MAIN CHARACTER

Christine is a driven corporate lawyer whose logic and passion for facts has created an orderly life that is ruled by the clock. However her deep passion for rules and regulations has been upended by young kids and a complacent marriage.

With an enough is enough mindset, Christine has decided this year is going to be the year of Christine. She's going to work on her body, her style and her life. She's going to have fun for a change and not feel guilty about a thing (well maybe just a little bit).

As Christine stretches her wings and steps outside her comfort zone, a lot can go wrong. But with Tate and Amy at her side and as willing co-conspirators, a lot might just end up going right...or at the very least, there's going to be some good stories to tell!

TONE

ageLESS follows three women 40-something women throughout their daily lives as they struggle to remain fresh and relevant while feeling anything but...

Like all great sitcoms, it is sometimes the smallest and most ordinary events which create the most hysterical situations. At its heart, ageLESS delves into the relationships between our three main characters who find themselves at the crossroads of life - shouldn't they have it figured out by now?

Honest, raw, uncomfortable relationships and issues are explored with nuance and subtext. The tone is real and our characters are psychologically and emotionally complex. There will be a tapestry of interwoven storylines; it is Tate, Amy and Christine who tell the stories through montages, flashbacks and voice-overs, while fantasies can also be utilized.

EPISODE CONCEPTS

EPISODE 1: "ONE FOR ALL"

"One For All" introduces three best friends, Tate, Amy and Christine as they meet up for their weekly glass of wine. Tate has the most amazing news to share - she is finally engaged - but developments in Amy's divorce and Christine's job have her second-guessing sharing her happy news. Besides, how will the world look at a 40-something first time bride anyway? Well Tate is determined not to look her age and maybe that oral laser treatment she just read about is just the ticket to make it happen.

EPISODE 2: "HOT GIRL SUMMER"

Amy's starting to hit her stride as a single lady with a new job and an empty nest. But a series of not so successful dates have her questioning if she is actually heading towards a dried-up winter and wondering what kind of a life she is really after. Is clearing the cobwebs from her much neglected vagina really worth a Brazilian for a bikini wax virgin? After birthing two children, how bad could it be?

EPISODE 3: "TO THE TOP"

Christine is on a career high as she makes senior partner at the country's largest corporate law firm. However her definition of success includes having it all - being a hot wife, an amazing mom and a career superstar. The problem is Christine only seems to be killing it in one of those areas. Determined to at least bring the "hot" to her wife/Mom game she decides to break out the Lululemons for a trendy new workout...and proceeds to literally break right out of them, granny panties and all.

EPISODE 4: "IT'S THE FINAL COUNTDOWN"

Tate's upcoming nuptials have become her obsession as her hunt for the perfect dress becomes more than a touch unhinged. Amy's much younger and possibly cooler colleagues begin to occupy her time while Christine's new position may not be all it has been cracked up to be but that doesn't mean she isn't going to keep trying. From a Golden Girls style wedding dress to an awkward night at the club to an accidental sleepover at the office, this episode has our three ladies struggling to continue their fight against time.

EPISODE 5: "THREE PATHS DIVERGE"

Christine ghosts Tate and Amy for their weekly meet-up for the first time, well ever and when Amy has one glass of champs too many she lets it slip to Tate that her wedding is kind of a joke. Isn't separation, termination and divorce only relevant for relationships and jobs...or are friendships at risk too? With their friendships hanging in the balance Tate, Amy and Christine each find themselves looking for solace in unknown. albeit hilarious, territory and for the first time ever, not with each other.

EPISODE 6: "FOREVER AND EVER, AMEN"

Tate is alone and lonely on the eve of her wedding. But right before she is about to embark on a full on Bridget Jones reenactment, Amy and Christine arrive to throw her the most epic stagette party ever that only becomes awkward when Amy realizes that the stripper is her son's best friend. But can bygones really be bygones and can a grand gesture heal all wounds? What fate will season two hold for these friendships that were once ironclad before the ultimate truths were told?

FUTURE SEASONS

SEASON 1

Three 40-something women are struggling to navigate through life at an age when they're supposed to have it all figured out, yet somehow they don't. They are raw, honest and hilariously real about everything with each other with one exception; the state of their friendship. Can their relationship survive the upheaval?

SEASON 2

Season two begins with Amy, Tate and Christine trying to pick up where they left off before the infamous pre-wedding fight and finding a sense of equilibrium with each other and their situations. But as everyone knows there is always a calm before the storm. Can they stay bound together to weather the crisis? Christine's suggestion of a girl's trip may just get their friendship back on track. Contiki tour anyone? So what if they have to lie about their age to get on board? It'll all be worth it...maybe? Each episode will follow the women as they discover new things about themselves and each other while they travel Europe with their much younger counterparts.

SEASON 3

In Season three the women discover that while everything has changed, somehow nothing has changed. With news that their favourite teenage idols, Dream Smoke, are doing a reunion tour and Tate's company is enacting the marketing campaign, Amy, Christine and Tate are whipped into a tizzy reminiscent of the days when the boy band ruled their lives. Another year older does not necessarily equate to another year wiser and they are still battling hard to stop the hands of time, this time to look and be their best when Dream Smoke comes to town. Are some dreams better left in the past? And will the ladies escape adding insult to injury in their quest to recapture their youthful glow?
